

Linking elements - origin, change, and functionalisation
 Workshop at the 13th International Morphology Meeting, Vienna
 February, 3rd - 6th, 2008 (Sunday - Wednesday)

Sebastian Kürschner (University of Groningen, s.kurschner@rug.nl)
 Renata Szczepaniak (University of Mainz, rszczepa@uni-mainz.de)

Workshop program

Tuesday, February 5, 2008

10.00 - 10.30	Renata Szczepaniak & Sebastian Kürschner Introduction
10.30 - 11.00	Anneke Neijt & Robert Schreuder Number and rhythm in Dutch compounds with or without linking en
11.00 - 11.30	Coffee break
11.30 - 12.00	Adrienne Humbert Linking elements in nominal compounds in Luxembourgish
12.00 - 12.30	Vincent Renner On the nature and function of -cum- in Present-Day English
12.30 - 13.00	Lars-Olof Delsing Swedish linking –s
13.00 - 14.30	Lunch break
14.30 - 15.00	Thorsteinn Indriðason Link or inflection? On linking elements in genitive compounds in Icelandic
15.00 - 15.30	Karin Pittner /r/ in German pronominal adverbs: from part of the stem to linking element and beyond
15.30 - 16.00	Coffee break
16.00 - 16.30	Martin Neef Linking elements as stem allomorphy: The case of Modern Standard German
16.30 - 17.00	Renata Szczepaniak Linking elements: a new strategy to improve the phonological word
17.00 - 17.30	Damaris Nübling Linking elements: a case of grammaticalisation?

Wednesday, February 6, 2008

10.00 - 10.30	Elena Nicoladis & Andrea Krott Do children treat French “linking elements” meaningfully in their acquisition of existing compounds?
10.30 - 11.00	Niina Ning Zhang Linking elements without categorial features and the immobility of the linked elements
11.00 - 11.30	Coffee break
11.30 - 12.00	Final discussion