

10th Annual Research Meeting on Economic Geography and International Trade (EGIT)

Vienna, 17-18 May 2019

Call for Papers

Purpose:

Researchers who are specialized in regional/urban economics and international trade come together in order to share their ideas and comment on each other's research papers. The meeting encourages interaction and discussion between the researchers, so that new ideas and joint projects can be initiated.

Any theoretical or empirical paper discussing the topics of economic geography or international trade is welcomed. This includes (but is not limited to) topics in urban economics, regional economics, new economic geography, international trade, foreign direct investment, and the economics of multinational firms.

This meeting aims at young scholars. Presenters should be current Ph.D. students or scholars who recently finished their PhD. Senior scholars are invited to attend and actively participate in the discussions.

Keynote Speaker:

Yoto Yotov, Drexel University & Ifo Institute

Organizers:

Harald Badinger, Vienna University of Economics and Business

Gabriel Felbermayr, Ifo Institute, University of Munich
