

UNIDO is the specialized agency of the United Nations, that promotes Inclusive and Sustainable Industrial Development through technical cooperation, policy and advisory services. UNIDO recognizes that gender equality and the empowerment of women have a significant positive impact on sustained economic growth and industrial development, which are drivers of poverty reduction, social integration and environmental sustainability.

The UNIDO Office for Gender Equality and Empowerment of Women coordinates the efforts of the Organization in promoting gender equality and women's empowerment throughout its policies, programmes and projects.

We are accepting applications for a Gender Intern to support our office by:

- ✓ Conducting research on gender and industrial development issues in specific countries, as required
- ✓ Assisting in the preparation and design of knowledge products and advocacy materials, brochures, newsletters etc.
- ✓ Helping to organize events, gender focal point meetings and trainings.
- ✓ Assisting in the monitoring of gender mainstreaming of technical cooperation activities of UNIDO.

The internship will be based in our office at UNIDO Headquarters in Vienna, and is expected to start on 1st January 2020 for a period of 3 to 6 months, which can be extended up to 9 months.

Candidates need to:

- ✓ be enrolled in an accredited university's Master's or higher degree programme,
- ✓ have a strong interest in gender equality and development,
- ✓ have fluency in written and spoken English and have excellent drafting skills,
- ✓ any knowledge of and/or experience in developing advocacy and communication materials would be an advantage.

For more information on our Internship Programme and to apply: <https://www.unido.org/resources-employment-internship/internship-gender-mainstreaming>

For more information on our work on gender equality and women's economic empowerment: <http://www.unido.org/gender.html>

