

The Institute for Strategic Management (ISM) at WU invites applications for a master thesis.

Topic: Strategic Alliance Termination

Scope, Aims, Methods, and Initial Literature Strategic alliances are strategic growth options that firms can pursue. With this thesis topic you investigate the termination of a strategic alliance and which factors drive the end of a strategy alliance, i.e. planned/unplanned termination of the partnership, alliance failure and alliance withdrawal. You will provide a comprehensive review of strategic alliance termination based on current scientific literature. Furthermore, you will examine the drivers of alliance termination and investigate the importance of them by either doing case studies or conducting interviews or analyzing quantitative data.

Potential Method: Literature review and case studies or interviews or quantitative data

Thesis Language: English

Expectations and Support: Constant feedback and regular meetings with faculty will facilitate a high-quality thesis that is completed in a timely fashion.
