Junior Specialist (m/f/d) Private Markets Accounting and Analysis

Job Purpose/Role

Are you passionate about investments? Interested in joining Allianz investment management community, responsible for a global € 750bn portfolio?

As Junior Specialist Private Markets Accounting and Analysis you have a key role in implementing the alternative asset strategy of Allianz worldwide. In close collaboration with AIM's investment strategy team and the asset managers you shape structures and provide IFRS accounting advice for new private debt and equity deals. You also analyze investment proposals for many traded fixed income and equity securities. You will directly report to the head of accounting solutions for investments. Your job location will generally be Munich, but flexible home office solutions are possible.

Key Responsibilities

- Contribute to a broad variety of private debt and private equity investment proposals (as part of the Allianz alternative investment community). Here you closely cooperate with the investment strategy teams of AIM and with external and internal asset managers (AllianzGI and PIMCO)
- Support private asset management through run phase of the assets, e.g. by valuation and transaction support in work-out cases and re-financing situations
- Provide accounting advice for AIM's investment strategy teams and prepare IFRS accounting opinions for all kinds of alternative and traded investments
- Present private debt/equity accounting and valuation topics to senior management

Key Requirements/Skills/Experience

- Strong academic background in particular excellent university degree in business administration or economics
- High degree of commitment
- Strong analytical and communication skills
- Proficiency in English and in German
