

2025 WU Tax Law Technology Symposium

ESG Reporting and Tax: Leveraging Technology for Data Collection and Management

September 4, 2025

Call for Papers

We are pleased to announce the Call for Papers for our upcoming 2025 WU Tax Law Technology Symposium, focusing on the intersection of tax law and technology with Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) regulations. This one-day event, organized by the Tax Law Technology Center at the Institute for Austrian and International Tax Law, WU Vienna, aims to bring together scholars, practitioners, and policymakers to discuss and explore innovative approaches to tax law and policy in the context of sustainability and technological advancements.

TOPICS OF INTEREST

We invite submissions on a wide range of topics from researchers and business stakeholders across various fields, with a particular focus on legal, tax, and data technologies. Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

- Current regulations of ESG and future changes
- ESG reporting obligations and tax compliance
- Effects of ESG requirements on tax rules and policies
- Combining needed data for the Corporate Sustainability Reporting Directive (CSRD) and Carbon Adjustment Border Mechanism (CBAM), plastic taxes, with other data from transfer pricing, VAT, custom duties, tax incentives, etc.
- Digital transformation in tax administration and businesses to boost ESG compliance, provide more transparency, and enhance efficiency
- How to benefit from technological tools for ESG data collection and analysis
- Benefits and risks of using AI technologies for ESG and tax reporting

Proposals from early-career scholars and practitioners are particularly encouraged. Authors of selected submissions are expected to present their work at the symposium, which will be held in person in Vienna on September 4, 2025.

We hope to publish a book based on the papers presented at the symposium and have a prima facie expectation that all papers will be included, although this is not an absolute requirement.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

If you want to submit a paper, please make sure to complete the online application form including:

- Abstract in PDF: 250-500 words excluding footnotes (the complete paper is not required for the application; authors can submit their final version of the paper after the symposium)
- Required Information: Title, author(s) + CVs, affiliation, contact details.

Submissions are accepted until April 30, 2025. You will receive the notification on your submission in mid-May 2025.
