Inaugural Lecture

Prof. DDr. Georg Kofler

The Institute for Austrian and International Tax Law, WU (Vienna University of Economics and Business) is pleased to invite you to the Inaugural Lecture of Prof. DDr. Georg Kofler:

“Gimme Shelter”: The Shielding Effect of European Tax Directives

May 5, 2021, 16:30

Campus WU, Building LC, Ceremonial Hall 1 (LC 0.100)

Welthandelsplatz 1, 1020 Vienna

Professor Georg Kofler has joined the Institute for Austrian and International Tax Law at WU as Professor for International Tax Law on October 1, 2020. He has worked in the field of taxation, especially European and international taxation, for nearly two decades, and has written, taught and lectured extensively on a broad range of topics within the field, including tax treaty law, EU tax law, domestic and cross-border business taxation and corporate reorganizations, the constitutional framework for taxation, and digitalization. He is part of several formal and informal research networks and serves, inter alia, as a member of the Permanent Scientific Committee (PSC) of the International Fiscal Association (IFA) and as the chair of the D-A-CH Tax Committee and the CFE Tax Advisers Europe’s ECJ Task Force.

Professor Kofler has earned a doctorate in law as well as a doctorate in business administration in 2002 and 2003, respectively, and an LL.M. in International Taxation from New York University in 2004, where he also served as an Acting Assistant Professor of Tax Law from 2006-2008. In 2006, he received his postdoctoral lecturing qualification (“Habilitation”) with a thesis on “Double Taxation Conventions and European Community Law”, which was awarded a number of prizes, including IFA’s Mitchell B. Carroll Prize. He has gained practical experience in the Austrian Federal Ministry of Finance and frequently serves as an expert in all fields of taxation. More recently, he was a visiting professor at the University of Florida (2013 and 2018), the University of Sydney (2016) and New York University (2019). Before joining WU, he was a tax professor and head of the tax law institute at the University of Linz.
