

International and European Tax Moot Court 2018/19

In the Mood to Moot?

WU

WIRTSCHAFTS
UNIVERSITÄT
WIEN VIENNA
UNIVERSITY OF ECONOMICS
AND BUSINESS

Annika Streicher, LL.M. (WU)

Institut für Österreichisches und Internationales Steuerrecht • www.wu.ac.at/taxlaw

International and European Tax Moot Court

- Since 2005
- Organised by Universities of Leuven (Belgium) and Tilburg (Netherlands)
- Only international tax Moot Court
- Participating universities from all over the world
- Our institute`s teams won in:
 1. 2006
 2. 2007
 3. 2010
 4. 2015
 5. 2016
 6. 2017
 7. 2018: Prize for Best Applicant Memo
 8. 2019: Second rank overall, prizes for Best Defendant Memo, Best Defendant Pleading, Best Pleading on Behalf of the Defendant (Ms Hanna Poss), Best Pleading Team

Our Teams

Activities on a Timeline

- August/September 2019: start of general preparations
- October 2019: publication of case
- Until January 2020: writing the memorandum (2x 12.000 words)
- January-March 2020: rehearsals for the pleadings & language training
- March 2020: oral finals in Leuven (Belgium)
 - 1st preliminary round (16 teams)
 - 2nd preliminary round (6 teams)
 - final round (2 teams)

Why should I apply?

- Get to know the international tax community!
- Cultivate your tax knowledge and soft skills!
- Have fun with your team!
- Improve your legal English!
- Use the Moot Court as a “Fachseminar” (WiRe) or “Masterthesis Seminar” (StRel)!
- Write your Master Thesis about it!

But isn't that much work?

Yes, but it pays off!

That sounds great! Where can I apply?

www.wu.ac.at/taxlaw (Deadline: June 18th)

Info event: June 13th, 2pm, Institute