

Info-session

Areas of specialisation WS2019/20

Master Program Economics

05.06.2019

- 12:00 Welcome
- 12:05 Economics of Distribution, Stefan Humer
- 12:20 Spatial Economics, Mathias Moser
- 12:35 Behavioral & Experimental Economics,
Melis Kartal representing Rupert Sausgruber
- 12:50 Regulatory Economics, Klaus Gugler
- 13:05 Break
- 13:15 Labour & Organisational Economics
Thomas Gradner representing NN
- 13:30 International Economics, Birgit Meyer
- 13:45 Money, Credit & Finance, Guido Schäfer

Areas of specialisation

- 1 Lecture (3 credit hours/6 ECTS)
introduction to the subject
- +
- 1 Research & Policy seminar (2 credit hours/4 ECTS)
small groups
possibility to work on your personal research project close interaction with professors

Areas of specialisation - Applied track

- 4 lectures and 2 R&P seminars in total
- the participation in the R&P class without having taken the lecture is not possible
- possibility to take areas of specialisation classes as a free elective class
(the curriculum of MSc Economics stipulates the completion of 3 credit hours/6 ECTS as a free elective).

Areas of specialisation - Science track

- 3 lectures and 2 R&P seminars in total
- the participation in the R&P class without having taken the lecture is not possible
- possibility to take areas of specialisation classes as a free elective class
(the curriculum of MSc Economics stipulates the completion of 3 credit hours/6 ECTS as a free elective).

Areas of specialisation – Semester abroad

- Possibility to choose 1 “Course abroad”
- 3 credit hours/6 ECTS
- Within an applied field of Economics such as Neuro-Economics, Health Economics, Environmental Economics, Economics of Ports, Economics of Arts and Culture....
- pre-recognition notice at the International Office before you go abroad