

Full Professor of Marketing with Focus on Retailing and Data Science
(Ref.no. 2019-26)
WU (Vienna University of Economics and Business)

WU (Vienna University of Economics and Business) combines excellence with responsibility. Its rare triple accreditation by EQUIS, AACSB, and AMBA is a guarantee for the highest quality research and teaching in the fields of business, economics, and business law. WU's research is characterized by a wide diversity of disciplines practiced at WU, allowing researchers to deal with even the most complex of research questions.

International cooperation is very important to WU, and we encourage and support both faculty and student mobility. WU is also very aware of its responsibility to its students, faculty, and staff and is committed to gender equality, equal opportunities, accessibility, family-friendly working conditions, and sustainability.

WU is currently inviting applications for the position of a full professor¹ of Marketing with focus on Retailing and Data Science at the Department of Marketing. Candidates are expected to have established an international reputation as a researcher in their field. Full Professor of Marketing with Focus on Retailing and Data Science (Ref.no. 2019-26)

WU assesses performance in the context of each applicant's biography and relative to the opportunities available to him or her. This approach recognizes that academic achievements cannot be assessed separately from each individual researchers' biographical factors. To ensure equal opportunities, qualifications are evaluated relative to the applicant's academic age. This means that WU takes biographical factors such as part-time employment or career interruptions due to caregiving or childcare obligations or other functions performed at or outside of a university into account. Depending on the candidate's academic credentials, the employment contract can be concluded either as a permanent employment contract or as a fixed-term employment contract with the option of a permanent extension.

In your application, you can include personal data related to biographical factors. WU will keep all data that you send us as part of your application confidential. All persons involved in the selection procedure are bound by obligations of secrecy.

The new professor of Marketing with focus on Retailing and Data Science will join the Institute of Retailing and Marketing, which aims at an outstanding expertise and reputation in research and teaching. In accordance with WU Vienna's Third Mission statement, the candidate is expected to actively collaborate with both the professional retailing and marketing community and policy makers. She or he will further increase the academic reputation of this institution and expand its international network in accordance with the strategy of WU Vienna and the Department of Marketing.

A) Qualifications

The successful candidate is expected to have established an international reputation as a researcher in his/her field and to have outstanding qualifications. Candidates' qualifications will be assessed in the context of their academic age:

a) A solid academic qualification (e.g. PhD, habilitation) in Marketing or a closely related area; b) an outstanding international reputation for high quality scholarship in the area of Marketing with special focus on the interface between Retailing and Data Science commensurate with academic age, especially by having demonstrated the ability to publish in top-tier journals of the field; c) excellent teaching qualifications at undergraduate and graduate levels; d) proven international experience; e) experience with the professional community, f) potential of attracting research funding; g) leadership qualities; h) gender and diversity management skills.

B) What we expect from the successful candidate

The successful candidate is expected to perform teaching activities at all levels (bachelor's, master's, PhD/doctorate, and executive education). Full professors are expected to teach eight weekly credit hours. We expect the new professor to take an active role in the ongoing development and management of the academic programs (e.g., acting as Program Director for WU's Master of Science in Marketing).

We also expect the new professor to take an active role in the university's self-governance and third mission activities.

C) Application process

Applicants should address their applications and all relevant documents (including in any case a letter of motivation, academic CV, reference to the criteria specified in the call for applications) to the rector of WU (Vienna University of Economics and Business), Welthandelsplatz 1, 1020 Vienna and upload those on the link provided: <https://www.wu.ac.at/en/careers/careers-at-wu/current-job-openings/>.

Please submit your application via WU's online recruiting tool until January 22, 2020.
