Full Professor of Management Control and Strategy Implementation
(Ref.no 2018-04)
WU (Vienna University of Economics and Business)

WU (Vienna University of Economics and Business) is currently inviting applications for the position of a Full Professor¹ of Management Control and Strategy Implementation at the Department of Strategy and Innovation.

WU is one of the largest business universities in the European Union and is centrally located at the heart of Europe. The University maintains an excellent position as a center for research and teaching and attracts an international group of students and faculty. It offers a broad range of undergraduate, graduate, and executive programs in the area of business, economics, and business law. WU has been granted triple accreditation by EQUIS, AACSB, and AMBA, and is a member of a number of international networks such as PIM and CEMS.

The Department of Strategy and Innovation is active in research, teaching and executive education, and maintains a constant national and international knowledge exchange between the academic community and the business community.

Research and teaching at the Department of Strategy and Innovation has a quantitative focus in empirical research on the development and implementation of firm strategies, integrating perspectives of entrepreneurship and innovation, corporate governance and management control.

The successful candidate is expected to contribute to the department's research and teaching profile with his/her specific expertise in managerial accounting and control systems for implementing strategy.

Required Skills and Qualifications: a) a solid academic qualification (e.g. PhD, habilitation) in management control and strategy implementation or a related area; b) an outstanding international reputation in high quality scholarship in the area of managerial accounting and control systems for implementing strategy commensurate with academic age, especially by having demonstrated the ability to publish in top-tier journals of the field; c) teaching qualifications at undergraduate and graduate level; d) proven international experience; e) preferably, demonstrated experience in attracting research funding; f) leadership qualities; g) gender mainstreaming skills.

The successful candidate will participate in teaching programs at all levels (bachelor, MSc, especially in the Master Program Strategy, Innovation and Management Control (SIMC), doctorate and executive education) and we expect the new professor to take an active role in the ongoing development of the academic programs.

Teaching experience in English is required; teaching experience in German is not necessary. Non-German-speaking candidates will be expected to acquire proficiency in German over a certain period of time.

The new professor is expected to take an active role in the University's self-governance.

For details of the position, please contact Professor Gerhard Speckbacher, Chair, Department of Strategy and Innovation, by phone: ++43-1-31336-5780, or email: gerhard.speckbacher@wu.ac.at.

Candidates should send their applications and all documents relevant to the criteria in the call for applications to the Rector of WU Wirtschaftsuniversität Wien, Professor Edeltraud Hanappi-Egger, Welthandelsplatz 1, 1020 Vienna. Electronic applications can be sent to prof.application@wu.ac.at. Please quote the reference no. given above when submitting your application. Applications must be submitted by March 7, 2018.
