

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR NEED-BASED SCHOLARSHIPS

for the 2021 calendar year
(§§ 63–61 Student Support Act [Studienförderungsgesetz])

The Federal Ministry of Education, Science and Research provides WU with funding for need-based scholarships each year. They are intended to fund the writing of academic theses being written as part of a regular degree program.

I.e., need-based scholarships provide financial support while you are writing your master's thesis or dissertation.

Recipients of need-based scholarships are awarded at least €750.

Expenses directly related to the writing of the academic thesis are eligible for funding, e.g.:

- Travel expenses for research stays abroad
- Complicated or time-intensive literature research
- Empirical work

Funding is not available, however, for:

- Living expenses
- Costs involved in actually producing the physical work, e.g. writing, printing, or binding costs, copying or telephone expenses
- General supplies, e.g. computer, paper
- Expenses normally covered by the budget of the supervising institute

APPLICATION PERIODS:

May 3–14, 2021

October 11–22, 2021

REQUIREMENTS FOR APPLICATION:

EEA member country citizenship or Austrian citizen status (§ 4 of the Student Support Act)

You have Austrian citizen status if:

- You have a "Daueraufenthalt – EU" residence permit
- You are a Swiss citizen and have lived in Austria for an uninterrupted period of at least 5 years
- You are a stateless person and
 - Together with at least one parent, you have been subject to Austrian income tax for at least 5 continuous years before enrolling in your degree program
 - Your center of vital interests was in Austria throughout this time
- You are a refugee

Enrollment in a WU degree program

Entitlement period (§ 18 of the Student Support Act)

- The entitlement period is made up of the prescribed duration of your degree program plus 1 additional semester.
- If you change to a new curriculum version of your degree program, the total number of semesters you have been enrolled will be added together.

RESULTS

We will notify you by email if your application for a scholarship has been approved or not. The financial means available to WU for awarding scholarships are unfortunately limited. Please note that students have no legal entitlement to a need-based scholarship (§ 67 [1] of the Student Support Act).

Please note: You are required to submit a report detailing the appropriate use of the need-based scholarship 6 months after receipt of the scholarship.
