

START-DANTE4PA

Danube Network of Training Experts for Public Administration

in relation to the START – Danube Region Project Fund of the European Union Strategy for the Danube Region – EUSDR

START is a pilot initiative of the EUSDR and provides small grants in the form of Seed Money.

START-DANTE4PA: a project for a Danube Region wide implementation of an administrative capacity building approach.

START-DANTE4PA

The overall objective of START_DANTE4PA is to strengthen administrative capacities on the local and regional level in the Danube Region by implementing a sustainable transnational capacity building approach on a Danube Region wide basis.

The aim is to install a three level transnational network between vocational education and training systems, civil services and governments. These objectives should be achieved by the following main issues:

- Developing a process model for a roll-out of a transnational vocational training approach for Public Administration in the Danube Region
- Forming a transnational institutional network of three different levels: vocational education and training systems / civil service / governments
- Preparing a business plan for a territorial roll-out of a transnational administrative capacity building
