

We'd like to thank our sponsors

2nd European Scientific Legal Tech Summit

genAI in legal practice

a fundamental rights perspective

March 26 and 27, 2026

WU Wien, Festsaal 2

26 March 2026

9-10.30 am	Workshop Young Section ARGE KIMR Panel discussion (in German) Chair: Nikolaus Pöchhacker University of Graz, IDEA_Lab, AT	Angelika Andensamer University of Graz, AT Antonia Csuk University of Graz, AT Tessa Grosz JKU Linz, AT Marie-Therese Sekwenz TU Delft, NL Sophia Witz University of Vienna, AT
10.30-10.45 am	Arrivals & Registration
10.45-11 am	Welcome address	Sophie Martinetz & Claudia Wutscher LTC / WU Vienna, AT
11-11.30 am	Keynote: The role of human rights in regulating technology	Roger Brownsword King's College London, UK
11.30 am-1 pm	Panel 1: fundamentals 1. Private Law as a Framework for Bias Mitigation in Generative AI: The Emerging EU Model 2. Fundamental Rights Impact Assessments for GenAI in Legal Practice: Toward Unity Within Diversity 3. Rethinking Good Administration: Generative AI and the Future of Administrative Law	Chair: Melanie Fink Leiden University, NL Lavinia Vizzoni University of Pisa, IT Zoltan Turbek IEC, Geneva, CH Valentina D'Antino BonelliErede's be Lab, Milan, IT
1-2.30 pm	Lunch break
2.30-4 pm	Panel 2: digital markets law 1. Iura novit machina: AI Literacy and Professional Liability for AI Hallucinations 2. On the legal validity and impact of benchmarking in the LLM industry 3. The influence of the AI Act on the use of genAI by judges	Chair: Philipp Homar WU Vienna, AT Irina Carnat Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies, Pisa, IT Tomás McInerney Queen's University Belfast, UK Noelle Funk German University of Administrative Science Speyer, DE
4-4.30 pm	Coffee break

4.30-6 pm

Panel 3: access to justice

1. Leveraging AI to Address the Issue of Access to Justice: a Systematization of Knowledge
2. AI-driven legal counselling: a way to facilitate access to justice or a threat to fundamental values underpinning legal profession
3. Access to justice through generative AI in South Asia: promise, peril, and constitutional limits of automation

Chair: David Schneeberger
Parliamentary Administration, AT

Johannes-Rudolf David
Lausanne University, CH

Magdalena Brewczyńska
Tilburg University, NL

Neha Tripathi
Mahindra University, IN

27 March 2026

9-9.30 am	Keynote: AI, business and human rights	Lyra Jakulevičienė Mykolo Romerio University, LT
9.30-11 am	Panel 4: theoretical approaches 1. HAL's legacy? - How 'subjectification' of and granting subjective rights to non-human entities transform human rights law and practice 2. The Death of the Legal Reader: GenAI, the New Author, and the Crisis of Tafahhum (Legal Comprehension) in Ibn 'Ābidīn's Radd al-Muhtār 3. Endangered Emancipation. Human Rights and Critical Thinking in the Age of AI	Chair: Claudia Wutscher LTC / WU Vienna, AT Camilla Haake Ludwig Boltzmann Institute, Vienna, AT Zafar Iqbal University of Karachi, Pakistan / Universidade de Coimbra, PT Maximilian Bauer University of Vienna, AT
11-11.30 am	Coffee break
11.30 am-1 pm	Panel 5: case studies 1. "Smart Judge" System in China: AI-Driven Transformation of the Judiciary and The Right to a Human Judge 2. Protecting emotions against inferring (and suspects against self-incrimination) 3. Legal Implications of Responses Generated by Tax Administrations' Virtual Assistants	Chair: Alexandra Kunesch University of Vienna, AT Davide Clementi University of Palermo, IT Georgios Bouchagiar VUB, BE Dilara İnal & Alara Efsun Yazicioğlu WU Vienna, AT / Bilkent University, TR