Aim of the course

Sustainable business has turned into an important strategic and operational choice of companies. Since unsustainable business is a source of potential risks many companies are currently transforming their business models and practices. The course introduces students to the conceptual framework in which sustainable decision making of businesses takes place. New business models with a positive impact on environmental, social and governance goals will be presented. Additionally, we will analyse the consequences of sustainable business choices for investment and finance. The overall goal of the course is to make students aware of current developments and its threats (including approaches to unveil “greenwashing” activities).

Learning objectives

The objective of this course is to equip students with the required tools to take adequate decisions in an economy that is more and more transforming towards sustainability. Upon completion of this course, students will

- have an overview of the current framework and pending EU regulations to foster the sustainability agenda, in particular regarding sustainable finance;
- understand new financing instruments and its impact on sustainability;

- be able to evaluate corporate decisions in line with sustainable business criteria (strategic as well as operational decisions);
- understand how sustainability challenges become business opportunities promoting value creation
- understand the fundamental change behind the transformation from the linear to the circular economy;
- understand what is leading for sustainability and how to promote a sustainable environment;
- understand the concepts of shared value and social innovation and their implications for the management of organisations;
- understand the meaning and relevance of social entrepreneurship, as well as the contributions of philanthropy to impact investing;
- have experienced to work on a assigned project in an internationally composed team;
- have learnt to prepare, structure and craft the presentation of their project and how to professionally present it.

Pre-course assignment (WU and UCP)

Your pre-course assignment will weight 20% of the total grade. It has two parts. The total student workload for the pre-course assignment will amount to approx. 20 hours.

Part 1: OMV report

Your assignment consists of the following:

Inform yourself about the business of OMV, Austria's largest company:

<https://www.omv.com/services/downloads/00/omv.com/1522216641908/omv-annual-report-2021.pdf>

1. Based on this information and additional research write a report answering the following questions:
 - Given the nature of OMV's business, which major negative externalities does the company currently face?
 - How do the identified problems relate to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs, <https://sdgs.un.org/goals>) ? In which way is the company currently tackling the problem(s)?

Additional information:

Deliverables: you should submit a report of approximately 1,000-1,500 words in total, 1.5 spacing, 11 or 12 font size.

Individual research: you are encouraged to perform online research using business websites, news and media sources.

Bibliography: Please source any specific information from your research in the text, and cite it in the bibliography. You are not requested to use a specific referencing style. Bibliography is not included in the word count / text length.

Part 2: "Creating Shared Value" Paper Synthesis and Critical Analysis

Your assignment consists of the following:

1. Please read the paper "Understanding 'Creating Shared Value'" you can find here <https://emrbi.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/09/EuroMed-10-2017.pdf> in pages 513-525.
2. Write a synthesis with the main paper ideas, including a critical analysis (1,000-1,500 words, 1.5 spacing, 11 or 12 font size).

•Deadline for both PARTS:

Please submit the pre-course assignment by July 3, 2022.

You have to upload your assignment on the CPBS Blackboard platform. Please create two separate files titled "(Your name)_Part 1" and "(Your name)_Part 2"

You have access on this platform via: <https://campus.porto.ucp.pt/>

Assessment:

The pre-course assignment will be assessed based on

- Clarity and consistency of arguments,
- Clarity of structure and format,
- Quality of writing, including appropriate referencing.

Coaching

The instructors will offer one or two open global sessions for students willing to clarify any doubts while preparing the assignment. The dates of these sessions will be communicated at the kick-off meeting.

Academic Integrity:

As a program which helps to create business and government leaders, University Faculty has an obligation to ensure academic integrity is of the highest standards. All cases of cheating or plagiarism, and any variations thereof, will be immediately referred to the Associate Dean/Vice-Rector for Studies. Students who participate in any form of cheating and/or plagiarism may be required to withdraw from the Faculty of Business/Department of Marketing and Communication.

Students are expected to carefully review the following points discussing academic integrity and group projects that have been adopted by our Faculty. Acts of academic dishonesty include, but are not limited to, the following:

- using the exact words of a published or unpublished author without quotation marks and without referencing the source of these words.
- duplicating a table, graph or diagram, in whole or in part, without referencing the source.
- paraphrasing the conceptual framework, research design, interpretation, or any other ideas of another person, whether written or verbal (e.g. personal communication, ideas from a verbal presentation) without referencing the source.
- copying the answers of another student in any test, examination, or take-home assignment.
- providing answers to another student in any test, examination, or take-home assignment.
- taking any unauthorized materials into an examination or term test (crib notes).
- impersonating another student or allowing another person to impersonate oneself for the purpose of submitting academic work or writing any test or examination.
- stealing or mutilating library materials.
- accessing test prior to the time and date of the sitting.
- changing name or answer(s) on a test after that test has been graded and returned.
- submitting the same paper or portions thereof for more than one assignment, without discussions with the instructor(s) involved.

Students should be aware that all instructors reserve the right to use plagiarism detection software program(s) to detect plagiarism for essays, term papers and other assignments.

Assessment / Grading

The following grading scheme is applied (WU and CPBS):

Grade	0%-100%	Description
1	>87.5%	Exceptional, outstanding and excellent performance. Normally achieved by a minority of students. These grades indicate a student who is self-initiating, exceeds expectation and has an insightful grasp of the subject matter.
2	75%-87.5%	Very good, good and solid performance. Normally achieved by the largest number of students. These grades indicate a good grasp of the subject matter or excellent grasp in one area balanced with satisfactory grasp in the other area.

3	62.5%-75%	Satisfactory, or minimally satisfactory. These grades indicate a satisfactory performance and knowledge of the subject matter.
4	50%-62.5%	Marginal Performance. A student receiving this grade demonstrated a superficial grasp of the subject matter.
Failed	Below 50%	Unsatisfactory performance
